In addition to the regional centres and branch offices of Deutsche Rentenversicherung Baden-Württemberg, your city or municipal administration will also help you fill out the forms.

Tip: Keep always have your insurance number to hand whenever you contact the pension insurance provider. This applies to every contact, whether in writing, by telephone or online. This will enable the clerk to process your insurance matter more quickly.

If you have already applied for a pension and realised that there are still gaps in your insurance account, you can submit the missing documents to your pension insurance provider or your municipal or local authority. You can also enclose copies of the documents with the written application. Original documents or confirmed copies are only required if they have been expressly requested.

Confirmation for pension purposes is free of charge from your municipal or local authority.
