for a training or study place.

Attention: If you are staying in Germany for training purposes, you cannot obtain a settlement permit. However, half of the time during which you were in possession of a residence permit for study or training purposes will be counted towards the time required for a settlement permit.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Proof that

- You fulfil the passport and visa requirements
- Your livelihood is secured
- there are no grounds for deportation against you
- You do not jeopardise or impair the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany
- You fulfil the admission requirements for the training (in the original)

In addition:

- Training contract
- Training plan
- Registration of the training company with the Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK), if required
- Language skills:
It is the responsibility of the employer and the vocational school to check whether the required language skills are available.

The Skilled Immigration Act came into force on 1 March 2020. According to this law, you must generally provide proof of sufficient language skills at level B1 for qualified vocational training. This proof should be provided by submitting suitable language certificates.

Voraussetzungen

In order to obtain a residence permit, you must fulfil the following requirements:

- You fulfil the passport and visa requirements.
For the passport requirement, it is sufficient if you have a replacement identity document.
- Your livelihood is secured.
