Teaser	The real estate cadastre records the results of the official land valuation in accordance with the Land Valuation Act (Bodenschätzungsgesetz - BodSchätzG) for the tax authorities. The yield measurement figure is calculated on the basis of the land valuation results.
Volltext	In addition to the information on the properties (parcels and buildings), the real estate cadastre also records the results of the official land appraisal for the tax authorities in accordance with the Land Appraisal Act (BodSchätzG). The yield measurement figure is calculated on the basis of the land valuation results. It is an indicator of the yield capacity of the soil (arable land or grassland). Extracts from the soil evaluation maps can also be requested.
