Teaser	Do you have a mental illness or live with a person with a mental illness? The wide range of assistance is designed to help you participate in social life again.
Volltext	Integration assistance pursues the goal of preventing an impending mental disability or eliminating or mitigating the consequences of a disability. Your participation in life in the community is to be maintained or restored after a longer stay in hospital or longer isolation. You will find support in coping with daily life. This includes in particular <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • housing • finances • household management • the organization of leisure time • the promotion of private contacts and hobbies • visits to public offices (preparation and support), if not the task of a legal guardian • Parenting The time of care is usually for a longer period of time and individually designed. The costs for the services are covered by the competent institution for integration assistance if an individual need for support is determined. If necessary, income and assets are
