Every federal state has an arbitration board in accordance with the Twelfth Book of the Social Code (SGB XII). The core task of the arbitration board is to find compromises for the points of the remuneration agreements that have remained in dispute during negotiations between the service providers and the social welfare agencies on the basis of the legal framework (laws, state framework agreements, court rulings), to mediate these for settlements or to determine them by arbitration. Appeals against this decision can be made to the courts.

In Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania, the arbitration board is composed of an impartial chairman and eight members.

The members of the arbitration board are not bound by instructions. Each member has one vote. The term of office is five years.

The office of the arbitration board is established at the State Office for Health and Social Affairs Mecklenburg-Vorpommern (LAGuS M-V). The Ministry of Labor, Equality and Social Affairs of Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania is responsible for
