Modul

Sachverhalt

Every corpse must be buried. Any person who discovers a corpse or in whose presence a person dies must immediately arrange for a post-mortem examination or inform the police. Any doctor in private practice who can be contacted is obliged to carry out the post-mortem examination without delay and to issue and hand over the death certificate. The same applies to doctors in hospitals and similar institutions for the deceased there.

The adult relatives must arrange the funeral in the following order:

1. Spouse,
2. civil partner within the meaning of the Civil Partnership Act,
3. children,
4. parents,
5. siblings,
6. grandparents,
7. grandchildren,
8. other partners in a long-term non-marital partnership.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

For the funeral

- Death certificate or notification of death

In the case of an urn burial, a certificate of the second official post-mortem examination prior to cremation.

Voraussetzungen

Kosten

There are fees for

- the issue of the death certificate,
- the issuing of the burial permit,
- other necessary official acts,
- issuing a corpse passport

If the next of kin do not arrange for the burial of a deceased person, the burial will be arranged by the responsible local regulatory authority and the persons responsible for the burial will be jointly and severally liable for the costs incurred.

Modul

Sachverhalt

If the relatives are not in a position to bear the funeral costs and the estate of the deceased is also insufficient, they can apply to the relevant social welfare office to have the costs covered.
