As a beneficiary, you must have a qualification in a trade in accordance with Annex A or B 1 of the Crafts Code or in a specialization listed in Annex 1 of the guidelines in order to be able to apply for the "Meister-Extra" grant for the successful completion of further vocational training to become a master craftsman or master craftswoman or master craftsman in industry at the Chamber of Crafts or Chamber of Industry and Commerce responsible for you in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. You can also apply for the "Meister-Extra" grant if you have taken your examination outside the state of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. What is funded?

Modul

Sachverhalt

The state of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern supports the successful completion of further vocational training to become a master craftsman or industrial foreman. The aim is to create an incentive for further professional training.

How is funding provided?

The amount of the grant is EUR 2,000.00. In addition, you can be granted a further EUR 3,000.00 if you emerge as the best or best in your trade.

You must observe the cut-off period of six months (complete application documents) for the "Meister-Extra" grant. The written notification of successful completion of the master craftsman examination procedure within the meaning of § 22 of the Master Craftsman Examination Procedure Ordinance in accordance with the Crafts Code or the Vocational Training Act is decisive for the application deadline.

You must provide certified proof that your place of employment and residence have been in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern for at least three months at the time the examination result was determined.

If you were unemployed at the time when the results of your advanced training as a master craftsman or industrial foreman were determined, you must prove that your place of residence had been in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern for at least three months at the time of the examination results. Furthermore, you must not have received unemployment benefit for further vocational training under the Third Book of the Social Code.

There is no entitlement to the granting of the "Meister-Extra", as the granting authority or office decides on the basis of its due discretion and within the framework of the available budget funds.
