Funding is available for

1. investment projects and their preparation,
2. Studies and concepts (e.g. creation and implementation of regional development and action concepts, business and project plans, feasibility studies, scientific evaluation support for the further development and efficient organization of regional cooperation processes),
3. sustainable public relations work to present the entire MRH (metropolitan region-related marketing) or for projects that are funded as projects in accordance with these guidelines (project-related marketing),
4. regional or project management, provided they are part of a MRH flagship project in accordance with point 2.4.

Who is eligible for funding?

Eligible applicants are

- the association "Projektbüro Metropolregion Hamburg" e.V.,
- the districts of Ludwigslust-Parchim and Nordwestmecklenburg and their local authorities and municipalities,
- the state capital Schwerin and
- the Regional Planning Association of West Mecklenburg and the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg.

Applicants can involve other municipal or non-municipal partners in projects by means of cooperation agreements. Their financial resources can be counted as own funds.

How is funding provided?

The applicant should first check whether funds from other funding bodies (e.g. EU) can be obtained. These can then be supplemented by the funding funds. In addition, projects can also be funded - in particular flagship projects for which it is not possible to obtain financial support from third parties or third-party funding for legal or factual reasons. The funding quota outside of lead projects amounts to a maximum of 50 percent of the applicant's remaining own contribution after deduction of all third-party funds and serves to provide appropriate pro rata financing of the applicant's own funds. Measures within MRH flagship projects can be funded up to 80 percent.

The de minimis limit is 10,000 euros.
