Teaser	If you or a data subject require information about your stored data in accordance with Section 23 (1) of the Security Clearance Act, you can apply for this by submitting an informal request. In Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania, Section 23 (1) of the Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania Security Clearance Act applies accordingly.
Volltext	Pursuant to Section 23 (1) of the Security Clearance Act, you can request information about what data has been stored about you as part of a security clearance. The person concerned (security-checked person) alone is not entitled to information, but any person whose personal data has been stored as part of a security check, for example the person included, the reference and information persons, the parents, the employer or persons over the age of 18 living in the household of the person concerned who were specified in the security declaration. The right to information does not apply without restriction; it may be waived under Section 23(3) of the Security Clearance Act. Furthermore, under Section 23(2) of the Security Clearance Act, information on certain data can only be provided with the consent of the cooperating authority. Pursuant to Section 23 (1) of the Security Clearance Act (Sicherheitsüberprüfungsgesetz - SÜG M-V), you may, upon request, receive information about what data has
