residence. The procedure is as follows:

- Depending on the foreigners authority and your request, it may be possible to apply via the Internet. Find out whether your foreigners authority offers electronic applications for residence permits.
- If you can only apply in person, make an appointment with the immigration office. During the appointment, your application will be accepted and your supporting documents checked (bring these with you to the appointment). Your fingerprints will be taken for the production of an electronic residence permit (eAT card).
- In the case of an electronic application, the Immigration Office will contact you after receiving your online application to arrange an appointment at the Immigration Office if necessary. During the appointment, your documents will be checked (bring them with you to the appointment) and your fingerprints will be taken for the production of the electronic residence permit (eAT card).
- If your application is approved, the Immigration Office will arrange for the eAT card to be issued.
- After around six to eight weeks, you can collect the eAT card from the immigration office.
- The eAT card must always be collected in person.

Fees are charged for the issue of the residence permit. The time and form of payment vary depending on the authority.

Bearbeitungsdauer

about 6 to 8 weeks. If you have concluded a hosting agreement or a corresponding contract with a research institution that is recognized to carry out the special admission procedure for researchers in Germany, the immigration authority must issue the residence permit within 60 days of your application. The list of recognized research institutions and information on this can be found under "Further information".
