Teaser	If you employ driving personnel from non-EU countries, you must apply for a driver's certificate for them.
Volltext	Any company engaged in commercial road haulage with a Community license that employs drivers who are not nationals of a Member State of the European Union (EU) or a State party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or Switzerland requires a driver attestation for each of the persons concerned. This is applied for by the company for the driving personnel. The regulation serves as proof that no illegal or abusive employment of workers from non-EU countries is taking place. The driver attestation entitles the driving personnel to drive the vehicle on behalf of the road haulage company within the EU. It is issued for a period of up to 5 years. However, it can also be limited to a shorter period if the residence permit or passport expires earlier. When employment is terminated, the driver's
