Teaser	If people in need of care cannot be cared for at home temporarily, it is possible to place them in a care facility as an inpatient for a short period of time.
Volltext	Are you caring for a relative or loved one and are temporarily unable, not yet able, or unable to provide the required level of care at home? And is partial inpatient care (e.g. day care) not sufficient either? Then the person in need of care (with care degree 2 to 5) is entitled to care in a fully inpatient facility. This applies: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. for a transitional period following inpatient treatment of the person in need of care or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. in other crisis situations in which temporary home care or partial inpatient care is not possible or not sufficient. The entitlement to short-term care is limited to 8 weeks per calendar year. Per year, 1612 euros are available to you for these eight weeks. You can also combine short-term care with preventive care. You can have part of the costs for accommodation and meals as well as for training and investments incurred during the stay in the home reimbursed by the nursing care insurance fund via the relief amount.
