Volltext	Anyone wishing to use the job title "veterinary medical technical assistant" requires a separate permit in accordance with the Act on Technical Assistants in Medicine (MTA Act). According to § 9 and § 10 of the MTA Act, certain activities may only be carried out by certain persons (reserved activities). The basis for practicing the profession of veterinary technical assistant is the completion of the prescribed training and passing the state examination in accordance with the Training and Examination Ordinance for Technical Assistants in Medicine (MTA-APrV). Vocational training completed outside the scope of the MTA Act can be recognized as equivalent under the conditions described in the MTA Act. In the case of foreign professional qualifications, an aptitude test may have to be taken or an adaptation period (EU, EEC) or a knowledge test may have to be passed or an adaptation period with examination (third countries) may have to be completed. The requirements for the granting of permission to use the professional title are set out in the MTA Act.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Documents are required to prove that the requirements for the granting of a license in accordance with Section 2 of the MTA Act have been met: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certificate of successful completion of the examination in accordance with the MTA-APrV or proof of training recognized as equivalent to the examination in accordance with the MTA-APrV, • official certificate of good conduct, not older than
