Teaser	If data in the electoral roll is incorrect, an application for correction may be submitted to the municipal electoral authority.
Volltext	The municipal electoral authority shall draw up an electoral roll for each electoral district before each election. It shall contain the surname and first name, date of birth and residential address of all persons entitled to vote. All persons entitled to vote who are registered at the registration office for a single dwelling or, in the case of several dwellings, for the main dwelling in the electoral district on the 37th day before the election (qualifying date) shall be entered in the electoral roll ex officio. Every person entitled to vote has the right to check the correctness or completeness of the data entered about him or her in the electoral roll during the general opening hours on the working days from the 20th to the 16th day before the election. In order to check the data of other persons entered in the electoral roll, persons entitled to vote shall only have the right to inspect the electoral roll if they substantiate facts from which an inaccuracy or incompleteness of the electoral roll may result. The right to inspect the electoral roll shall not apply to the data of persons entitled to vote for whom a blocking notice pursuant to Section 51 (1) of the Federal Registration Act has been entered in the population register. Anyone who considers the electoral roll to be incorrect or incomplete may submit an application for correction to the municipal electoral
