Teaser	You require a permit exemption for the modification of a facility that does not require a building permit. For this purpose, you submit the required documents to the responsible municipality.
Volltext	To submit for permit exemption, you must use the officially prescribed forms or an online service. The builder must seek the assistance of a design professional (for example, architects or civil engineers) who is authorized to prepare building documents. Required documents to be submitted include a number of construction documents necessary to evaluate the project and process the submitted permit exemption. The permit exemption is subject to a fee, depending on the municipal bylaws.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Submission of required documents for permit exemption (via online service or via officially prescribed form) • Extract from the official real estate map

Modul	Sachverhalt
	• Site plan • Construction drawings • Building description • Calculation of the permissible, existing and planned extent of building use in the case of building projects within the scope of a development plan containing stipulations in this regard
Voraussetzungen	• Complete submission of the required documents for the permit exemption • Construction project is in compliance with public law regulations • You do not need a permit for your construction project if it is located in a development area whose development plan has been approved, it does not contradict the regulations of the development plan, the development is regulated by the development plan and the municipality does not request a simplified building permit procedure within the statutory period or applies for a temporary prohibition. • If deviations from the provisions of the development plan are intended, they must be applied for and approved separately before the submission of the permit exemption.
Kosten	possibly fees according to the statutes of the municipality
Verfahrensablauf	Submit a permit exemption for a facility modification online or in text form using the published form. Attach the required construction documents. Submit the documents to the appropriate municipality. If documents are missing or if there are other ambiguities, you will be asked to remove these processing obstacles. In this case, submit the missing or adjusted documents and/or the clarification. The responsible municipality will check your documents. If you do not receive any feedback from the responsible municipality within one month or if it declares in writing beforehand that no approval procedure is to be carried out and that it will not apply for a prohibition pursuant to Section 15 (1) sentence 2 of the Building Code, you may start construction. If the
