Volltext	If you process or handle wine or grape must commercially, store it or trade in it, you must declare your stocks to the competent Land office by the deadline of 31.07. of the respective year. You must ask the responsible Landesstelle for the deadline if it is not listed below. For guidance, as a producer, processor, bottler or distributor (except retailers), you must submit your stock declarations no later than 10/09. However, EU member states may set an earlier deadline. Some German states have made use of this: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bavaria, Berlin, Brandenburg, North Rhine-Westphalia and Rhineland-Palatinate: 07.08. • Saxony-Anhalt and Thuringia: 10.08. • Saxony: 14.8. • Baden-Wuerttemberg: 20.08. • Lower Saxony and Saarland: Aug. 31.

Sachverhalt

- Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania: 01.09.
 - Hamburg and Hesse: 10.09.
- In the stock declaration you have to state in any case:
- Your identity and whether you are reporting as a producer, processor, bottler or distributor;
 - the place of storage of the products;
 - The total stocks, broken down by color (red/rosé or white), type of wine (with PDO, with PGI, varietal wine without PDO/PGI or wine without PDO/PGI), origin (Union or third countries).
 - the type of holder of the stocks (producer or trader) (*see below for explanation);
 - for wines:
 - The total stocks, broken down by color (red/rosé or white), type of grape must (concentrated grape must, rectified concentrated grape must or other grape must),
 - the type of holder of the stocks (producer or merchant)*.
 - for grape must:

Union product quantities from the grape harvest of the same calendar year are not included in this declaration.

* You may need to differentiate between your own and purchased products stored on your own or rented premises on the survey date. It is irrelevant whether these are stored in tanks, barrels or bottles.
