Teaser	Have you applied for a grant for fertility treatment and received the corresponding grant notification? Have you also already had the fertility treatment carried out? Then you can now apply for payment of the grant.
Volltext	If you have applied for the grant for fertility treatment and have received a corresponding grant notification, you can have the fertility treatment carried out within six months. After you have had fertility treatment, you can apply for payment of the grant for fertility treatment.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Copies of invoices from the reproduction facility and, if applicable, other service providers for the treatment

	costs • Proof of benefits relating to the treatment costs from the health insurance fund, subsidy office or other cost bearer
Voraussetzungen	The subsidy for fertility treatment can only be paid if: • You have applied for the subsidy before the start of treatment, • you received the provisional grant notification before the start of treatment, • you have had the fertility treatment carried out within six months of receiving the provisional grant notification, • the fertility treatment was carried out in accordance with the treatment plan that you submitted when you applied for the grant.
Kosten	There are no costs.
Verfahrensablauf	You submit the application for a grant for fertility treatment together with the required documents (copies). If you meet the requirements, you will receive a final grant notification. Once you have received the provisional grant notification, you will be paid the grant for fertility treatment. You can apply for payment of the grant for fertility treatment online or by post. If you meet all the requirements, you will receive a final grant notification. The amount paid out will be transferred to the account you specified in your application one month after the final grant notification has been issued.

Hinweise	The measure is funded proportionately by the federal government and the respective state. The federal government only supports heterosexual married and unmarried couples. The regulations of the individual federal states may deviate from this. If there are not enough federal funds available, you will only receive the share of the state to which you have applied for the subsidy.
Rechtsbehelf	Contradiction
Kurztext	• Funding for fertility treatments Verification of use of funds • Prerequisite for payment: The grant was applied for before the fertility treatment and a provisional grant notification was issued There is a separate service for this: Funding for fertility treatments Approval • Applications for payment can only be submitted after fertility treatment. • Various supporting documents must be submitted with the application. This includes, above all, copies of all receipts and invoices incurred during fertility treatment. • Application for payment of the subsidy is possible in most countries via online service or in paper form • Responsible body: LAGuS
