Teaser	If you want to join your unmarried German minor child in Germany, you can obtain a residence permit for family reunification.
Volltext	You can join your unmarried German minor child if you come from a country outside the EU or EEA, have custody of the German child and intend to exercise this right. Personal care includes the right and at the same time the duty to care for, educate and supervise the child and to determine its whereabouts. A child is a minor if it has not yet reached the age of 18. Anyone who is not married and has never been married is unmarried; anyone living in a registered civil partnership is also not unmarried. If these requirements are met, you must be granted a residence permit. You can also join your child if you do not have custody rights. The prerequisite for this is that you and your child are already living together as a family in Germany. Family cohabitation is assumed if the relatives maintain regular contact with each other that goes beyond mere visits. If the requirements are met, the authorities will decide whether to issue the residence permit on a discretionary basis.

Under certain circumstances, the immigration authority may oblige you to take part in an integration course. This will then be noted on your residence permit.

The residence permit is a temporary residence title and is issued for at least one year.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- valid passport or passport replacement
- current biometric photo
- Visa, if this was required for entry
- Birth certificate of your child
- Proof of custody, if applicable
- Proof of family cohabitation, if applicable
- current registration certificate

The Immigration Office may request further documents in individual cases.

Voraussetzungen

- You have a recognized and valid passport or passport substitute and, if required for entry, an appropriate visa.
- Your child is a minor, unmarried and has German citizenship.
- You have custody of your child and wish to exercise this right or, as a non-custodial parent, are already living in a family relationship with the child in Germany.
- There is no interest in deporting you.

Your stay does not jeopardize or impair the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany.

Kosten

Issuing a residence permit: EUR 100.00

Under certain conditions, a fee reduction or fee exemption may be possible.

Please note:

- Additional fees may apply for the issuance of a residence permit in the form of an electronic residence permit, which can also be used as electronic proof of identity.
