Modul

Sachverhalt

For young people who are still subject to full-time compulsory schooling, the regulations applicable to children apply.

The activity of a child must be a creative participation, for example as a performer, musician, supporting character or person without a speaking role (extra), extra, singer, model.

Exceptions for creative participation may be approved:

- for theater performances
 - \- for children over 6 years of age
 - \- up to 4 hours a day
 - \- in the period from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
- for music performances and other performances, advertising events and recordings on radio and television, on audio and video media as well as film and photo shoots

- \- for children over 3 to 6 years of age
- \- up to 2 hours per day
- \- in the period from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

- \- for children over 6 years of age up to the end of the 9th school year
- \- up to 3 hours a day
- \- in the period from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Permission is generally granted for a maximum of 30 days per calendar year and child.

Employment days of several employers are added together.

Rehearsals count as working time and are included in the period of employment.

After the end of employment, the child must be granted the required 14 hours of free time between two jobs. Attendance at school before the end of this period is not affected by this restriction.

Modul

Sachverhalt

Permission is not granted for children to work in cabarets, dance halls and similar establishments as well as at amusement parks, funfairs, fairs and similar events, shows or performances.

An exception for the employment of a child under the age of 3 cannot be granted.

Employers are responsible for ensuring that the necessary precautions and measures to protect the child in question against risks to life and health and to prevent detrimental physical and mental development are taken at the latest before the start of employment. All the circumstances that play a role in the child's employment must be taken into account. Furthermore, employers must ensure that the child is cared for and supervised. The necessary measures therefore include careful selection, appointment, instruction and supervision of the supervisor, even if the employer has delegated these tasks.
