Teaser	If you want to drive buses, you must have your driving license extended to category D, DE, D1 or D1E at the driving license authority. These extended driving license categories are limited to 5 years.
Volltext	To drive buses or vehicle combinations consisting of a bus and a trailer, you need an extended driving license for category D, DE, D1 or D1E. You can apply for the extension of your driving license at the driving license authority in your place of residence. If your driving license is extended to include categories D, DE, D1 and D1E, it will be issued for a limited period of 5 years. You must apply for an extension before this period expires. Depending on the category, the extended driving license entitles you to drive various buses. To apply for an extension, you must meet various requirements. Class D driving license: • Motor vehicles for the transportation of more than 8 persons in addition to the driver • Trailers with a total weight of up to 750 kg • Required driving license: B • Minimum age: 24 years or 20 years if you drive buses professionally Class DE driving license: • Motor vehicles for the transportation of more than 8 persons in addition to the driver
