Verfahrensablauf	• If you would like to apply for a change of employment on your residence permit, you must first submit an application to your local immigration authority. Send a copy of your current residence permit with your application and describe which condition you would like to change and how. • The foreigners authority will then tell you which documents they need from you. • Then submit the required documents in full to your immigration office. • The foreigners authority will then check your application and usually ask the Federal Employment Agency for approval. • Once the examination has been completed, you will either receive an appointment, a new residence permit by post or a notification of rejection.
Bearbeitungsdauer	1 to 3 months Note: The duration depends on the workload of the Foreigners' Registration Office and the Federal Employment Agency.
Frist	There are no deadlines, but you should consider applying for a new residence permit if your old one is only valid for a few months.
