Teaser	Are you registered in the Register of Craftsmen with a craft requiring a license and would like to practice another craft? Then, under certain conditions, you can apply for a license to practice another trade.
Volltext	Persons who already practise a craft subject to licensing and wish to expand their commercial activity to another craft subject to licensing or essential activities of such a craft have the option of applying for a license to practise. In this respect, proof of the necessary knowledge and skills is required, whereby previous professional experience and activities are also taken into account. It is irrelevant on what basis the existing entry in the register of craftsmen was made (e.g. master craftsman's certificate, old journeyman's regulation, exemption permit). The respective business owner is entitled to apply. You can apply for a license to practice if you <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• are already entered in the register of craftsmen with a craft requiring a license.</li> <li>• you want to work in another craft requiring a license.</li> <li>• you can provide evidence of your practical and theoretical knowledge and skills in the trade you are applying for.</li> </ul> The master craftsman's examination serves as a

Modul
Sachverhalt

Written application:

- Go to the website of your local Chamber of Skilled Crafts.
- Download the application forms for a license to practice.
- Complete the forms in full and send them to your local Chamber of Skilled Crafts together with the required proof of your knowledge.
- Your application and the evidence will be checked by the Chamber of Skilled Crafts. If the evidence is not sufficient, you may have to take an examination of expertise.
- After your documents have been checked, you will receive a license to practice and a notification of registration if the requirements are met.

Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist

You can only exercise the other craft requiring authorization once it has been entered in the register of craftsmen. A license to practice must therefore be applied for in good time.
