Volltext	If you are active as a showman, "flying trader" or owner of a market stall, i.e. if you offer your services or goods at constantly changing locations, you are operating a traveling trade. To do this, you need a traveling trade license. You must carry this with you when carrying out your activity and present it to the local competent authority on request. As an employer, you must hand over a duplicate or a certified copy of the traveling trade card to employees in your company who have direct customer contact without your presence or who work at a different location to you. If, as an EU citizen, you are only temporarily working across borders, you do not need a traveling trade card.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Extract from the register of cooperatives or extract from the commercial register • Certificate of good conduct for submission to authorities • Proof of liability insurance for showmen • Extract from the central trade register GZR • Certificate in accordance with the Infection Protection Act (only if offering food for sale with the exception of fruit and vegetables) • Tax clearance certificates from the tax office • Business registration (confirmation)
