Voraussetzungen

Prerequisites are

- personal reliability and
- orderly financial circumstances.

You will not receive a permit if

- Facts justify the assumption that you, as the applicant, do not possess the reliability required for commercial operations. As a rule, you do not have the necessary reliability if you have been convicted of a crime or of theft, embezzlement, extortion, fraud, breach of trust, money laundering, forgery of documents, receiving stolen goods, usury or an offense against the Unfair Competition Act in the five years prior to submitting the application.
- you as the applicant are living in disorderly financial circumstances. This is usually the case if insolvency proceedings have been opened against your assets or if you are entered in the register kept by the insolvency

Verfahrensablauf

You must apply for a permit for auctions in writing or in person at the competent authority. After the examination, you will either receive the permit or a rejection notice. A permit may be subject to certain conditions. In addition to obtaining a permit, you must also register the business with the relevant municipality.

The authorities have rights of information and inspection vis-à-vis tradespeople. At the request of the authorities, the parties concerned must provide the information required to monitor business operations. Furthermore, the authorities are authorized to enter the business premises in order to carry out inspections and visits.

As an auctioneer, you are also subject to the requirements of the Auctioneers Ordinance (VerstV) when carrying out your business. For example, you must

- prepare a list of the items to be auctioned no later than two weeks before the auction, in which the auctioned items of each client must be uniformly identified
- notify the competent authority and the Chamber of Industry and Commerce in whose district the auction is to take place in writing of each auction at least two weeks before the planned auction date, stating the place and time of the auction and the type of goods to be auctioned
- provide the opportunity to inspect the goods to be auctioned for at least two hours
- keep a record of each auction order and its execution

Upon request, the competent authority appoints particularly competent auctioneers for certain types of auctions. As a publicly appointed auctioneer, you must swear an oath that you will perform your duties conscientiously and impartially.
