Teaser	The certificate in tax matters certifies the tax facts based on the available knowledge of the applicant's payment and tax behavior.
Volltext	Certificates in tax matters may be required for numerous, particularly commercial, reasons. The information to be provided on your tax situation serves primarily as a declaration of reliability, i.e. as proof that you regularly meet your tax obligations. The content of the certificate is limited to the non-judgmental statement of tax facts, such as existing tax arrears, payment methods and the taxpayer's filing behavior. The certificate refers to the current situation, taking into account the applicant's past behavior. A forecast of the applicant's future behavior is not made in this respect. The assessment of the certified tax conduct is left to the person who is to take the measure requested by the taxpayer (e.g. granting of a business license, a road haulage concession or a contract).
