Teaser	Anyone wishing to guard the lives or property of third parties on a commercial basis requires a permit from the competent authority.
Volltext	Commercial guarding is subject to authorization. Guarding within the meaning of Section 34a of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act (GewO) refers to activities aimed at protecting the lives or property of third parties from interference by third parties. The specific activities covered by the term "guarding" are wide-ranging. These include, among others <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • conventional bicycle, vehicle and building security, • the event service, • air passenger control, • the transportation of money and valuables, • personal protection or • the guarding of industrial and military facilities and nuclear power plants. Guarding requires an active custodial activity (e.g. supervision or checks). The guarding must consist of human activity.

A guarding contractor can be a natural or legal person. In the case of partnerships (e.g. OHG, KG), the trader is any managing partner. In the case of legal entities (e.g. GmbH, AG), the permit is issued to the legal entity.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Copy of identity card or other official identification document for all natural persons authorized to manage the company
 - Proof of personal reliability
 - If resident in Germany:
 - Extract from the central trade register
 - Certificate of good conduct for all natural persons authorized to manage the company
 - If resident abroad: documents from the home country that prove personal reliability
 - Proof of the company's legal form
 - if the company is based in Germany:
 - For companies entered in a register: Extract from the commercial register or the partnership register
 - otherwise a copy of the articles of association (e.g. for a civil law partnership (GbR))
 - if the company is based abroad: documents from the country of domicile that prove the legal form.
 - Proof of orderly financial circumstances taken out

- In order to verify the necessary requirements (in particular your personal reliability), the competent authority may request further documents and obtain statements from other authorities (e.g. police, State Office of Criminal Investigation, Office for the Protection of the Constitution).

Voraussetzungen

- You have the reliability required for commercial operations.
- You live in orderly financial circumstances.
- You have
 - proof of your personal expertise by successfully passing an examination of expertise before the Chamber of Industry and Commerce or an equivalent qualification and
 - proof of the required liability insurance.

The personal licensing requirements (reliability, proof of successful completion of an expert examination) must be fulfilled by the trader or the legal representatives of a legal entity.

The following security activities require the successful completion of an expert examination:

- Patrols in public traffic areas or in domestic areas with actual public traffic;
- Protection against shoplifters;
- Guarding the entrance area of nightclubs;
- Guarding reception facilities in accordance with Section 44 of the Asylum Act, shared accommodation in accordance with Section 53 of the Asylum Act or other properties and facilities that are used for the official accommodation of asylum seekers or refugees, including temporary accommodation, in a managerial capacity;
- Guarding large events with protected access in a managerial capacity.

Kosten

The exact amount of the fees depends on the relevant fee statutes of the competent authority or on the statutory regulations of the federal state.

Modul

Sachverhalt

- The competent authority charges an administrative fee of between EUR 103.00 and EUR 1,300 for a permit to operate a security business in accordance with Section 34a (1) GewO. 1,300 EUR is charged.
- IHK examination of expertise: EUR 130.00
- Extract from the central trade register: EUR 13.00
- Certificate of good conduct: EUR 13.00

Verfahrensablauf

You must apply for the permit from the responsible office.

In the case of legal entities (limited liability companies, business companies, public limited companies, registered cooperatives), you only need to complete the application form for the legal entity itself. You must submit all personal documents for all natural persons authorized to manage the business (e.g. identity card). For the legal entity, you also need an excerpt from the central trade register.

Partnerships (GbR, KG, OHG, PartG, GmbH & Co. KG) are not eligible for a license as such. Therefore, each managing partner requires a permit. You must submit a completed application form and all personal documents for each of these persons.

Hinweise

The security company must report the security guards to the competent authority responsible for the respective branch of the security company.

The authorities have rights of information and inspection vis-à-vis traders pursuant to Section 34a GewO in accordance with Section 29 GewO. At the request of the authorities, the parties concerned must provide the information required to monitor business operations. Furthermore, the authorities are authorized to enter the business premises in order to carry out inspections and visits.
