Volltext

Tax consultants and tax agents must be appointed by the Chamber of Tax Consultants responsible for their registered office in order to practice their profession. Membership is established at the same time as the appointment. Membership of a chamber of tax advisors is mandatory.

The chambers of tax advisors are corporations under public law. The main tasks of the chamber include, in particular, monitoring the fulfillment of professional duties, representing the professional interests of its members and promoting their further education and training.

To be appointed by one of the chambers of tax advisors, you must

- have passed the examination as a tax consultant or
- be exempt from the examination and
- establish your office in the catchment area of the respective chamber.

You must apply for appointment as a tax consultant in writing to the Chamber of Tax Consultants responsible
