Volltext	If you can provide evidence of at least three years of effective and regular practice as an established European lawyer in Germany in the field of German law, including Community law in accordance with Section 12 EuRAG, you will be admitted to the bar in accordance with the provisions of Sections 6 to 36 of the Federal Lawyers' Act (Bundesrechtsanwaltsordnung). The actual practice of the profession in the host country without major interruptions is regarded as effective and regular practice. In the event of longer interruptions, the Bar Association shall take into account the reason for and duration of the interruption in each individual case. Anyone who has regularly practiced as an established European lawyer in Germany for at least three years, but has only worked in German law for a short period of time, will only be admitted as a lawyer if they can prove that they are able to continue practicing their profession. The Bar Association will check this in an interview. If a national of a member state of the European Union or another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or Switzerland who has completed professional training that entitles him/her to direct access to the profession of European lawyer takes a state aptitude test, he/she may also be admitted to the bar immediately.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	For the "Application for Admission to the Bar", the applicant must provide evidence of the number and type of legal cases he has handled in German law and the duration of his activity. He/she shall provide the Bar with all information and documents that are
