Volltext	For Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, the Landesblindengeldgesetz Mecklenburg-Vorpommern (LBIGG M-V) applies. According to this law, blind and severely visually impaired people who have their usual place of residence in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern receive state blindness allowance to compensate for the additional expenses caused by the visual impairment. In addition, according to § 1 paragraph 2 LBIGG M-V in conjunction with the EU Regulation No. 883/2004 in certain cases, nationals of another Member State of the European Union who are employed or self-employed in Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania, but do not have their habitual residence here, can receive state blindness allowance. For blind people over the age of 18 who live in their homes, the entitlement is 430.00 euros. If they have not yet reached the age of 18, the entitlement is 273.05 euros. Highly visually impaired people living in domesticity are entitled to 107.50 euros from the age of 18 and 68.26 euros before the age of 18. When receiving benefits for home care according to the Social Code Book Eleventh (SGB XI) - Social Care Insurance, the state blindness allowance is reduced.
