| Frist                        | The application can be submitted at the earliest six months before the expiry of the previous driver's license. If the application is not submitted until after the expiry of the previous driver's license, the license will no longer be extended, but a new driver's license will be issued. The fact that you were already the holder of a corresponding driver's license at an earlier time is then no longer evident from the new driver's license.                                                                                                                                                    |
