For your Residence permit for victims of a trafficking crime, you can apply for an extension.

Volltext

You are in possession of a residence permit for victims of a criminal offense pursuant to Sections 232 to 233a of the German Criminal Code (StGB) (trafficking in human beings). In this case, your residence permit should be extended by the Aliens Department for a further two years if humanitarian or personal reasons or public interests require your continued presence in Germany.

Humanitarian reasons exist, for example, if you no longer have a livelihood in your country of origin or must expect disadvantages, exclusion or retaliatory measures due to your participation in the criminal process.

In principle, you have a right to be granted a residence permit.

You are still entitled to benefits according to the Second Social Security Code (SGB II - Grundsicherung für Arbeitssuchende) or basic benefits in old age or in case of reduced earning capacity, child benefits.

Family reunification for your spouse and minor child (the so-called nuclear family) is only possible for the application process and which documents you need to submit in which form on the respective website of the Foreigners' Registration Office. If you have applied for an extension in due time (before the expiry of your residence permit), your previous residence is considered permitted until the decision of the Aliens' Registration Office. If your application is granted, the Aliens Department will commission the Federal Printing Office to produce the electronic residence permit (eAT) with a new validity date. With regard to the duration of the procedure until the residence permit is issued, please inform yourself at the responsible Foreigners' Registration Office.

Bearbeitungsdauer	You will usually be informed of the duration of the procedure (about 6 to 8 weeks) when you apply for an extension by the competent foreigners authority. Note: The residence permit is issued as an electronic residence title.
Frist	You must apply for the extension of your residence permit in good time before the expiry of the validity of your residence permit. The residence permit is extended for two years. In justified individual cases, a longer period of validity is also permissible. Period of action: 1 month
