Verfahrensablauf

To apply online for an export license for registered cultural property, you can use an online procedure that is currently in pilot operation. The online procedure includes an optional preliminary check to determine whether an export license is required based on just a few questions. In general, you no longer have to select the correct application - it is determined automatically based on the information you provide. The pilot operation serves to further test and optimize the process. Authentication is required for online applications. Private individuals can do this via the federal user account, organizations verify themselves via the company account based on ELSTER.

The following steps are required to apply in writing for a permit to export registered cultural property:

- Search for the competent authority and the PDF form for your federal state using the authority finder.
- Download the correct PDF form. Export license in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 116/2009, Section 25 or Section 26 of the Cultural Property Protection Act for export to third countries and according to § 24 paragraph 1 number 2, § 25 or § 26 of the Cultural Property Protection Act for export to member states of the European Union
- Fill out the PDF form on your PC.
- Print out the documents. Export license in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 116/2009 for export to third countries in triplicate (the form already contains all copies), Export license according to § 24 paragraph 1 number 2 Cultural Property Protection Act for export to member states of the European Union in duplicate, Export licenses pursuant to § 25 and § 26 of the Cultural Property Protection Act, each in duplicate (please note: the forms for exports to third countries already contain all copies)
- Sign in the spaces provided, stamp the documents if necessary and attach the necessary supporting documents to each copy.
- Send the documents to the competent authority.
- The authority will check your application and send you 2 copies (export to a third country in accordance with Regulation No. 116/2009) or one copy (export to a third country or export to member states of the European Union in accordance with Section 24(1)(2), Section 25 or Section 26 of the Cultural Property Protection Act), the completed, signed and sealed documents are returned, together with a fee notice if applicable. Copy 1 is the application and remains with the authority. All other copies will be returned to you. When exporting to a third country in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 116/2009, you must submit copies 2 and 3 to the competent German customs office of export together with the export declaration. The customs office of export completes box 26 and gives you copy 2. After the actual export, the German customs office of export confirms this in box 27 and returns copy 3 to the authority that issued the license.

If your application for an export license is rejected, you will receive a written notification with reasons and instructions on how to appeal.

Bearbeitungsdauer

For an application to export cultural property to a member state of the European Union, the processing time is up to 10 working days after submission of the complete application documents. Apart from the above-mentioned decision period for certain licenses, the processing time depends on the completeness of the application documents submitted and the complexity of the application. You must apply for the permit in good time before the planned export of the cultural object.

Frist

For permits to a third country and to a member state of the European Union, the period of validity is 12 months. The (temporary or permanent) export is possible until the last day of the period of validity. The re-import period (up to 5 years) for the one-off temporary export of cultural property is determined by the authorities according to the purpose of the export. The period of validity for general or specific open permits is up to 5 years. The (temporary) export is possible until the last day of the period of validity, the re-import must take place within 5 years.
