Teaser	If you are expected to be permanently confined to a hospital, nursing home, or similar facility, then you may be exempt from the requirement to have an ID card.
Volltext	If you are likely to be permanently accommodated in a hospital, nursing home or similar institution, then you can be exempted from the obligation to have an ID card - in other words, from the obligation to have an ID card. This is the case, for example, if you are no longer able to live in your home because of your medical condition. If you are no longer able to apply for the exemption for yourself, an authorized person can do this for you. You can cancel the exemption at any time. All you need to do is apply for an identity card or passport.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• written request • as far as available: your old identity card or passport • if applicable, proof that you are likely to be permanently accommodated in a hospital, nursing home or similar institution, for example by means of a certificate from the family doctor, the hospital, the nursing home or the nursing service
