Sachverhalt

The Federal Immission Control Act (BImSchG) provides information on which companies must submit an emissions declaration.

As the operator of certain industrial and agricultural businesses that require a permit, you are obliged under the Federal Immission Control Act to submit an emissions declaration on a regular basis.

Please note the following requirements:

- Installations requiring approval are defined in the Fourth Ordinance on the Implementation of the Federal Immission Control Act and can be viewed in Annex 1 of the Ordinance (4th Ordinance on the Implementation of the Federal Immission Control Act).
- As the operator of an installation listed in the 11th Ordinance on the Implementation of the Federal Immission Control Act, you are not required to submit a declaration.
- Operators of installations subject to licensing are obliged to submit an emissions declaration if they have operated their installations during the declaration period.
- If the installation is commissioned, shut down or temporarily not operated during the declaration period, the declaration period includes the parts of the calendar year in which the installation was operated.
- As the operator of an installation requiring a permit, you can apply to the competent authority to be exempted from the obligation to submit an emissions declaration if, in individual cases, your installation may only emit a small amount of air pollution.

Submit an emissions declaration online:

To simplify electronic reporting of environmental data, you as a company subject to reporting requirements can submit your data online via "Betriebliche Umweltdatenberichterstattung" (BUBE). BUBE is operated as a cooperation between the 16 federal states under the Administrative Agreement on the
