Teaser	Has your identity card been stolen? Then you must report this. You must also apply for a new ID card if you are over 16 years old and do not have a valid passport document.
Volltext	The theft of your identity card must be reported to • any identity card authority, usually the local citizens' office, or • any police station. If you do not do this, you are committing an offense. You must also apply for a new ID card if you are over 16 years old and do not have a valid passport document, i.e. a passport or temporary passport.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Biometric passport photo: From May 1, 2025, only digitally available biometric photos will be used for new official documents. The photographs will either be taken at the authorities or by photographers. This means that citizens can no longer bring their own photograph with them. • if available and not yet validated: old passport or children's passport (valid or already expired) • if no valid passport or children's passport is available: Birth certificate or marriage certificate • if available: police report of loss • if there is only one parent or legal guardian, additional proof of custody • for children under the age of 16: if applicable, a declaration of consent from the parent with custody who is not present
Voraussetzungen	The obligation to apply for an identity card applies to you if you • have German citizenship, • have reached the age of 16, • are registered in Germany and • do not have a valid passport document, i.e. passport or temporary passport. For applications outside your main place of residence: • You must be able to provide an important reason why you are not applying for the ID card at the ID card authority that is responsible at your main place of residence. • Exception: The temporary ID card cannot be applied for abroad.
