Teaser	 If you wish to make a declaration recognizing maternity to your child, to the extent required by your home country law or the law of the country in which the child is habitually resident.
Volltext	A declaration by which maternity to a child is recognized can be notarized in any registry office, at youth welfare offices and before notaries. Recognition of maternity only applies in cases where the parentage of a child born to parents who are not married to each other is governed by the law of the country in which the child has its habitual residence or, alternatively, by the mother's home country law. If the foreign law of the mother's or father's home country requires a maternity acknowledgment, this will be publicly authenticated. The same regulations apply as for the acknowledgement of paternity.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Proof of identity (e.g. identity card, passport, ld card)
Voraussetzungen	 The recognition must be publicly certified. The acknowledgement of maternity can be submitted to any city office, youth welfare office or notary public. Recognition and consent are not subject to receipt and do not require receipt by a particular registry office or other authority in order to be effective. Recognition of maternity is only applicable in cases where the parentage of a child born to parents who are not married to each other is governed by the law of the country in which the child has its habitual residence or, alternatively, by the mother's home country law. If the foreign law of the mother's or father's home country requires a maternity acknowledgment, this will be publicly authenticated. The same rules apply as for paternity recognition. • Recognition under condition or time provision is ineffective. • The recognition also requires the child's consent if the mother is not entitled to parental care in this respect. • A person with limited legal capacity can only acknowledge himself or herself, but requires the consent of the legal representative. If the legal representative is a guardian, the approval of the guardianship court is required. • For an incapable child, or a child who is not yet 14 years old, only the legal representative can consent to the recognition. • Acknowledgements or consents cannot be declared by an authorized person. Kosten The recognition of maternity is free of charge. If applicable, fees for the affirmation in lieu of an oath as well as for an interpreter Verfahrensablauf The recognition of maternity can be submitted to any city office, youth welfare office or notary public. • The recognizing woman declares to be the mother of the child. • The registrar must check the declaration of recognition in order to prevent ineffective recognitions if possible. • Specifically checked: • The identity of the parties involved • Any previous status determinations • The registrar explains the legal consequences of the name. • The recognition is publicly certified Bearbeitungsdauer • Case-by-case	Modul	Sachverhalt

Kurztext	Under German law, maternity results solely from the fact of birth: the mother of the child is the woman who gave birth to it. • Recognition of maternity only applies if the parentage of a child born to parents who are not married to each other must be determined in accordance with the law of the state in which the child has its habitual residence, or alternatively in accordance with the mother's home country law. (cf. Art. 19 (1) sentence 1 of the Introductory Act to the German Civil Code. • The recognition of maternity is notarized in public form. • Every registry office, all youth welfare offices and notaries are responsible.
