Teaser	When a foster child is admitted, one-time lump-sum allowances are approved and transferred with the first foster care payment.
Volltext	When a foster child is admitted, foster carers receive one-off and flat-rate allowances/benefits. 1. When a foster child is admitted, foster carers receive a one-off flat-rate allowance. The allowance covers • The renovation and initial furnishing of a room for the foster child, • the initial provision of school supplies, • initial equipment with a bicycle, child seat, helmet, etc. The amount is paid with the first foster care allowance. A separate application is not required. When a child is admitted up to the age of one, an additional lump sum can be granted upon informal application (initial baby equipment). Needs exceeding these amounts are covered by the current care allowance. 1. • When a foster child is admitted, a one-time, age-dependent lump sum is paid for the initial provision of clothing. • If the foster child was in an out-of-home youth welfare measure of more than 6 months duration before admission to the foster family, the allowance is reduced to half of the lump sum. The allowance is paid with the first foster care payment. An application is not required

Erforderliche Unterlagen
Voraussetzungen	• Existing foster relationship of full-time care • If applicable, permission for full-time care according to §44 SGB VIII
Kosten	There are no costs involved.
Verfahrensablauf	No applications are necessary for the allowances for the initial furnishing of the apartment and with clothing. The amounts are paid with the first payment of the monthly lump sums. For the infant initial equipment, an informal application is sufficient. You can submit the application digitally via the online service "pflegekinderwesen-digital" using the form "Formless applications". Flat-rate benefits may vary depending on state law or state implementation guidelines. Seek advice from your local youth welfare office or foster child service.
