decisive.

The social scale of costs g is based on income and the number of children in a family who are entitled to child benefits. The amount of the contribution to the personnel costs is reduced on application for each child of a family attending the after-school care by 25%. for each additional child in the family who also attends the after-school care program or a day care center.

If, during the current period of after-school care, you are a recipient of benefits:

- to secure your livelihood,
- for help with education,
- assistance with living costs or basic security in old age and in the event of reduced earning capacity,
- according to the Asylum Seekers' Benefits Act or
- receive a child supplement,

you will be exempted from the fees for the duration of the receipt of these benefits on application and on presentation of suitable documents, at the earliest from the calendar month of the application.

Verfahrensablauf

Upon receipt of the application or notification of change, the requirements for after-school care are checked and the after-school care fees are determined. You will receive a notice of the fees to be paid.
