Sachverhalt

the way of the marriage.

You can also have your marriage subsequently certified if you both do not have German citizenship and were married in Germany before an authorized person of a government of the state to which one of you belongs. The registry office of your place of residence or the place where you last lived or the place of your habitual residence is responsible for the subsequent certification.

If your habitual residence is not in Germany, the registry office I in Berlin is responsible for the subsequent certification.

Erforderliche Unterlagen
