Verfahrensablauf

Training to become a driving instructor can only take place in one of the approx. 56 recognized driving instructor training centers nationwide. Not only is theoretical training required, but also practical training in a driving school.

The training is a "graduated training". In the basic level, the driving instructor license for category BE is acquired first. A two-stage application procedure is required for this. Based on this, driving instructor licenses for categories A, CE and DE can be acquired.

In order to obtain a driving instructor license, a candidate license must first be applied for.

- In order for the candidate driving instructor to be able to apply the knowledge he has just acquired at the officially recognized training center, he is issued a "candidate authorization" with limited training rights if he has previously successfully passed the practical driving test and the specialist knowledge test.
- The "Anwärterbefugnis" expires either when the driving instructor license is issued or after three unsuccessful driving tests in theoretical or practical driving lessons or after 2 years from the date of issue.

Hinweise

Applicants who have already obtained a driving instructor license in the public service (German Armed Forces, police) and are seeking a civilian driving instructor license do not need to take the driving instructor test. In addition to the above-mentioned documents, these applicants must enclose proof of possession of the service driving instructor license (e.g. certified copy of the driving instructor license) with the application.
