Volltext	The news of a pregnancy does not always bring joy. It can often be associated with serious conflicts and problems. In such cases, women can turn to the recognized pregnancy- and pregnancy conflict counseling. The task of conflict counseling is to help the women and partners concerned to make a viable decision about continuing or terminating the pregnancy. At the end of the counseling session, a certificate for a non-punishable abortion is issued. In addition, the pregnancy- and pregnancy conflict counseling offer pregnant women and their partners guidance and support during pregnancy and after the birth of the child. Information is provided on family support services or on social, employment and financial regulations. The advice centers also provide advice on sex education, contraception and family planning. The advice centers accept applications for the Thüringer Stiftung Hilfe für schwangere Frauen und Familien in Not. The consultations are anonymous if desired.
