Teaser	If you want to run a zoo, you need permission from the relevant conservation authority.
Volltext	If you want to establish and operate a zoo, you need the approval of the lower nature conservation authority responsible for your district or city, located in the district office or the city administration. In addition to the establishment and operation of a zoo, the expansion and significant changes are also subject to approval. The nature conservation authority issues the permit upon application for specific facilities and specific operators and sets a maximum number for the animal population of each species. Zoos are permanent facilities in which live animals of wild species are kept for a period of at least seven days a year for the purpose of displaying them.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Depending on the type of zoo, different documents are required. Information on this can be obtained from the lower nature conservation authority.
