Sachverhalt

However, these areas of application are interpreted differently in the individual contracting states. For information, please contact your local Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

For temporary export of goods to Taiwan (Republic of China) use the Carnet C.P.D. (form orange).

Erforderliche Unterlagen
Voraussetzungen
Kosten

In addition to the fee for the form, there are processing fees for the issuance of an A.T.A. carnet. In addition, the Chambers of Commerce and Industry charge an insurance fee to cover the customs risk. This fee is paid to the customs guarantor's reinsurance company. It does not cover transport insurance or any import duties that may be incurred when the goods remain abroad. The amount of the insurance fee depends on the total value of the goods listed in the A.T.A. carnet.

Verfahrensablauf

The local Chamber of Commerce and Industry can issue A.T.A. Carnets for all companies and other natural and legal persons. The applicant is advised individually on the procedure and is provided with information material and completion aids. The completed A.T.A. Carnet form is checked by the Chamber of Commerce and bears a stamp, seal and validity date.

Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist

In compliance with set deadlines by foreign customs administrations, the A.T.A. carnet can usually be used several times within 12 months. After the expiration of the validity, it is returned to the competent chamber of commerce and industry.
