Sachverhalt

- refrigeration systems,
- air conditioning systems,
- heat pumps,
- fire protection equipment.

The certification requirements are to be fulfilled regardless of the filling quantity of F-gases

Erforderliche Unterlagen

A questionnaire must be completed in the application form as proof of the above-mentioned requirements. A copy of the relevant certificates of competence of the employees in accordance with Section 5 (1) ChemKlimaschutzV must be enclosed with the application.

For activities on stationary fire protection equipment, a list of equipment must also be submitted.

Exception: Within 3 years after a regular certification, only the proof of the change of name (e.g. extract from the commercial register or business re-registration) is required for a renewed certification due to a change of name (name change, relocation, etc.) of the company.

Voraussetzungen

The following requirements for company certification must be met in accordance with Article 6 (1) of the Implementing Regulation (EU) 2015/2067 of November 17, 2015 (in the field of refrigeration and air conditioning) or Article 8 (1) of Regulation (EU) 304/2008 of April 2, 2008 (in the field of fixed fire protection equipment):

- The company must have a sufficient number of employees to cover the expected volume of activities.
- sufficient number of persons who are holders of a personal certificate of competence in accordance with Article 5 Paragraph 1 ChemKlimaschutzV with regard to the activities requiring certification.
- The company must provide evidence that all necessary tools and procedures are accessible to the persons performing activities requiring certification
