transport. This exam can be repeated once (without a new training course). Only then does the IHK issue the training certificate for a period of 5 years. The examination can be taken for one or simultaneously for a maximum of three modes of transport.

Please note the following points for the examination:

- The duration of the examination depends on the number of modes of transport examined. It is between 100 (one mode of transport) and 250 minutes (maximum four modes of transport) for the basic examination and between 50 and a maximum of 125 minutes for the supplementary examination. The duration of the supplementary examination is between 50 (one mode of transport) and 150 minutes (maximum three modes of transport).
- The examination is conducted in writing. You may use the relevant regulatory texts for the respective modes of transport as well as a non-programmable calculator as aids. The use of other electronic aids is not permitted.

If you have a training certificate that is about to expire, you can take a renewal exam. To do so, you must present your training certificate. If you pass the renewal exam within 12 months before the expiration date of the training certificate, the training certificate will be extended for another 5 years from the expiration date. There are no restrictions on retaking the renewal exam within the validity period of the training certificate.

You can take the examination at any IHK in Germany, regardless of the training center and your place of residence.
