Teaser	You would like to run a private university? Then you need to apply for state recognition.
Volltext	If, as an independent institution, you wish to operate a private (non-state) educational institution as a university, you require state recognition by the ministry responsible for the subject. State-recognized institutions of higher education may use a corresponding designation (university, college, university of applied sciences), hold university examinations and award university degrees. The operation of a legally independent branch of a foreign higher education institution also requires state recognition by the relevant ministry.
