Sachverhalt

may practice the profession in Germany as a service provider within the meaning of the provisions of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) for the temporary and occasional practice of the profession even without a license or permit.

In this case, you are subject to a prior written notification obligation pursuant to Section 11a (2) of the Federal Veterinary Medical Regulations. The obligation to register exists if you move from another member state to Germany for the first time in order to provide services. The notification must be renewed once a year if you intend to temporarily and occasionally provide services in Germany during the year in question. If prior notification is not possible due to the urgency of the activity, the notification must be made immediately after the service has been provided.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

To provide services for the first time or if there is a significant change from the situation certified in the documents, you must submit the following documents in accordance with § 11a Paragraph 2 Sentence 4 of the Federal Veterinary Medical Regulations:

- Proof of citizenship,
- Certificate stating that you are legally established as a veterinarian in a member state of the EU or in another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or in a state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area to which Germany and the EU have granted a corresponding legal right by treaty and that the practice of the profession is not prohibited, even temporarily, at the time of submission of the certificate, and
- Your professional qualification certificate.

The certificates must not be older than twelve months at the time they are submitted. You may also be required to provide information regarding details of your insurance coverage or other type of individual or collective protection related to professional liability.

	Translations in German must be provided of documents and certificates written in foreign languages, unless the State Veterinary Chamber allows otherwise. The State Veterinary Chamber may require that the translations have been made by a publicly appointed or sworn interpreter or translator.
Voraussetzungen	You must be legally established to practice veterinary medicine in another EU member state or one of the states listed above.
Kosten	No fees have yet been set for the procedure.
Verfahrensablauf	You can make the notification to the competent body in any form, enclosing the required documents (see below). You will receive a confirmation from the competent body that the notification has been properly made.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing time depends on the completeness and suitability of the submitted documents (see above).
Frist	The notification must be made before starting to practice the profession. If prior notification is not possible due to the urgency of the activity, you must make the notification immediately after providing the service.
