above-mentioned documents are not issued in the country of origin, they can be replaced by an affidavit in lieu of an oath. In some countries, there is no affidavit in lieu of an oath. There you can make a solemn declaration. You must make such a declaration before

\- a competent authority,
 \- a notary or notary public or
 \- an appropriately authorized professional organization in the country of origin.

This authority will certify your declaration. The documents must not be older than three months.

You must also submit the above documents in translated form. This does not apply to proof of nationality.

If necessary, you may be asked to submit a certified translation. This must be prepared by publicly appointed and sworn document translators.

Note : In cases of doubt, the Chamber of Skilled Crafts may request further proof.

Voraussetzungen

Recognition of professional experience

The necessary professional experience is possessed by persons who have carried out at least one significant activity in the trade for which the exemption is requested:

- at least 6 years without interruption as a self-employed person or as a person responsible for the business, provided that the activity was not terminated more than ten years before the application was submitted
- at least three consecutive years as a self-employed person or as a person responsible for the business, if this was preceded by at least three years of training in
