Volltext	Child day care is a form of childcare for children aged 0 - 14 years and is the second pillar of childcare in Rhineland-Palatinate alongside day care centers. It is close to the family and flexible in terms of time, making it particularly attractive for parents who still have very young children or who require particularly flexible childcare due to their working hours. In Rhineland-Palatinate, child day care is provided by a suitable day carer in their own home, in the parents' home or in other child-friendly rooms apart from day care facilities. In child day care, a maximum of 5 other children can be cared for by a day carer at the same time Childminders in Rhineland-Palatinate require a qualification for their work.

Within the framework of publicly funded child day care, qualified childminders receive a certain hourly rate, which varies from place to place. It should also be noted that the day carer can be employed by their employer.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

During a consultation with your youth welfare office, you will find out where you can find suitable childminders and which documents you need to submit in order to apply for public funding.

The youth welfare office is also responsible for the aptitude test, the qualification and the issuing of the care permit for day carers.

Voraussetzungen

Kosten

The fees for the day carer are based on the respective scope of care and are set by the youth welfare office. The parents' contribution to costs is also based on the scope of care and is determined by the youth welfare office depending on income. You can obtain detailed information from your local youth welfare office.
