Teaser	Have you migrated to Germany and are between 12 and 27 years old? Do you need support with your professional, educational or social integration? Then the Service Office for Youth Migration Services will help you with your individual questions.
Volltext	As a youth social work service, the primary task of youth migration services is to advise and accompany young people with a migrant background in their transition to school, training or work . All employees of the service are trained accordingly and are guided by the integration support plan. They respond to the individual needs of each enquirer and support them with regard to their professional and educational future as well as their social integration. Interested persons aged 12 to 27 as well as parents of migrant adolescents and young adults can find out more about the topic by telephone and ask their questions via the contact telephone of the "Service Office for Youth Migration Services". Of course, the service offices are also available for personal advice.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Documents may be required. Please check with your local authority.
Voraussetzungen	Adolescents and young adults aged 12 and 27 are advised.
